

Week of January 9-13

Developmental Assessment Week

We will not be working on any concepts this week

This Weeks Reminders and announcements

We will begin working on the Winter developmental assessments this week and continue for the next 4 weeks. Assessment packets and report cards will be sent home the end of February.

Since we will be focusing on assessments this week and not be working on any concepts Friday's show and tell can be anything that your child would like to bring!

Wednesday: PTO meeting at 6:00
